

I want to note my opposition to any changes to the Indiana "no-call" provision. I know the CBA is promoting a change and I oppose this. Since Indiana's provision went into effect, it has been a distinct pleasure to spend time in the evening without interruption by marketing calls. I don't want that to change.